

TVS SRICHAKRA LIMITED (TSL)

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS POLICY & STANDARD OPERATING PROCESS

This policy is effective from 1st April, 2016.

TSL shall adhere to the principles and guidelines specified in the policy below for recognition, measurement and disclosure of Related Party Transactions.

I. PREAMBLE

The Companies Act, 2013 (Act) read with the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 (Rules) introduced specific provisions relating to related party transactions and defined the term related parties, (material) related party transactions, relatives and key management personnel. The Act and the Rules have also laid down the financial limits and the approval process for such transactions. In addition, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) reviewed the provisions of the Listing Agreement vis-a-vis the Companies Act, 2013 and with the objectives to align with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, adopt best practices on corporate governance and to make the corporate governance framework more effective, Regulation 23 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015).

Pursuant to Regulation 23(1) of SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015, all the listed companies need to formulate a policy on materiality of related party transactions and also a policy on dealing with related party transactions.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors (Board) of TVS Srichakra Limited (Company or TSL) has adopted a policy and a standard operating procedure to regulate transactions between the Company and its Related Parties, in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Act, the Rules and the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015.

This Policy was considered and approved by the Board at its Meeting held on 11th May, 2016.

II. OBJECTIVE

In its endeavour to ensure due and proper compliance with the applicable provisions and to ensure that proper procedure is defined and followed for approval / ratification and reporting of transactions as applicable, between the Company and any of its Related Parties, this policy has been adopted by the Company's Board of Directors. The provisions of this policy are designed to govern the transparency of approval process and disclosures requirements to ensure fairness in the conduct of related party transactions, in terms of the applicable laws.

The Policy and procedures have been designed to achieve due and timely compliance with the statutory requirements governing related party transactions by ensuring that:

- i. Related Parties are identified;
- ii. Related Party Transactions are evaluated;

- iii. Necessary approvals are obtained;
- iv. Related Party Transactions are recorded; and
- v. Proper disclosures of the Policy and the Related Party Transactions are made including disclosure of all transactions in the Annual Financial Statements.

III. SCOPE

This Policy is applicable to all related party transactions in TSL.

IV. DEFINITIONS & EXPLANATIONS (Please refer to Annexure - A)

V. POLICY

A. Audit Committee approval

All Related Party Transactions and any subsequent modifications thereto, shall require the prior approval of the Audit Committee. (Sec 177 (4) (iv) and Regulation 23(2) of SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015.

B. Board of Directors approval

All Related Party Transactions that are:

1. not in the ordinary course of business, or
2. in the ordinary course of business but not at arms' length or
3. neither in the ordinary course of business nor at arms' length shall require the prior approval of the Board of Directors at a Meeting of the Board. [Sec 188 (1)

*The Managing Director is authorized to approve transactions with related party(s) already approved by the Audit Committee / Board, in excess of the approved limits by 5% per related party or Rs. 1 crore whichever is higher, which can subsequently be ratified by the Board of Directors.

C. Shareholders' approval

All Material Related Party Transactions shall require prior Shareholders' approval, through a Special Resolution passed at a General Meeting. All Related Parties shall abstain from voting on such Resolution

D. Process for approval

- a. The Audit Committee will determine, in line with this Policy, whether the transaction submitted to it does, in fact, constitute a Related Party Transaction, requiring compliance under this Policy.
- b. Review and Approval of Related Party Transactions
 1. Any Director, who is interested in any Related Party Transaction, shall excuse himself or her-self from discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party Transaction.

*modified at the Board Meeting held on 11.2.2017.

Registered office: TVS Building, 7-B, West Veli Street, Madurai – 625001. Tel : 0452 242046

2. To review a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee will be provided with all relevant material information of the Related Party Transaction, including the terms and conditions of the transaction, the business purpose of the transaction, the benefits to the Company and to the Related Party, competitive quotes from third parties and any such other information reasonably required to decide whether such transaction is Related Party Transaction or not including any additional information about the transaction that the Audit Committee may reasonably request.
3. In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee may consider giving omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company subject to the following conditions:
 - a) The Audit Committee shall lay down the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with this Policy and such approval shall be applicable in respect of transactions which are repetitive in nature.
 - b) The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the Company;
 - c) Such omnibus approval shall specify (i) the name/s of the related party, nature of the transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into, (ii) the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any and (iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit;
 - d) Provided that where the need for Related Party Transactions cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding Rs.1 crore per transaction.
 - e) The Audit Committee shall review, at least on a quarterly basis, the details of the Related Party Transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval given.
 - f) Such omnibus approvals shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approvals after the expiry of one year
4. In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction the Committee will consider, inter alia, the following factors to approve a Related Party Transaction:
 - a. Whether the terms and conditions of the Related Party Transaction are fair and on an Arms' Length basis to the Company and are in the ordinary course of business of the Company;

- b. Whether there are compelling business reasons for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction as against the normal transactions;
 - c. Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of an independent director;
 - d. Whether the proposed transaction includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of, or in connection with, the proposed transaction;
 - e. Whether the Related Party Transaction would amount to a conflict of interest for any director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the director, Executive Officer or other Related Party, nature of direct or indirect interest of directors, Key Managerial Personnel or other Related Party in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and such other aspects as may be deemed relevant to the Committee;
 - f. If the Committee determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Board or if the Board itself elects to review any such matter or it is mandatory under any law for the Board to approve such Related Party Transaction, then the criteria set out above shall also apply to the Board's review and approval of the matter with such modifications as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances
5. If the Board determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Shareholders or it is mandatory under any law for the Shareholders to approve such Related Party Transaction, then the Chairman of the Board will ensure obtaining requisite approval of the Shareholders. Shareholder(s) who are Related Parties will abstain from voting on such resolution.
6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following Related Party Transactions shall not require approval of the Audit Committee or Shareholders:
- a. Any transaction in which the Related Party's interest arises solely from ownership of securities issued by the Company and all holders of such securities receive the same benefits pro rata as the Related Party.
 - b. Any transaction entered into between a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
